Let's Start!

Let's visit a cathedral in Moscow!

Learning Outcome

Describe rooms, homes and objects in buildings in common social and work situations.

Ask your partner:

- What famous churches or cathedrals do you know about?
- Where are they?
- What do they look like?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe a building and rooms in it.
- I can talk or report about things, actions and events.
- I can ask people to repeat themselves.

Let's Explore!

When do the church bells ring across the square?

* When a bell makes a sound it "rings".

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Guide: Here is Cathedral Square. This is the oldest part of the Kremlin. In the past, it welcomed all who came through the main gates.

Sally: Sorry, main ...

Guide: Gates.

Sally: It's fascinating! The domes of the churches are all gold!

Guide: Yes. This is where people came for the coronation of a tsar. On holidays, the church bells still ring across the square. Come into the Cathedral of the Archangel.

Sally: I'm sorry, can you repeat the name?

Guide: Cathedral of the Archangel.

Sally: The walls of the main room are so dark!

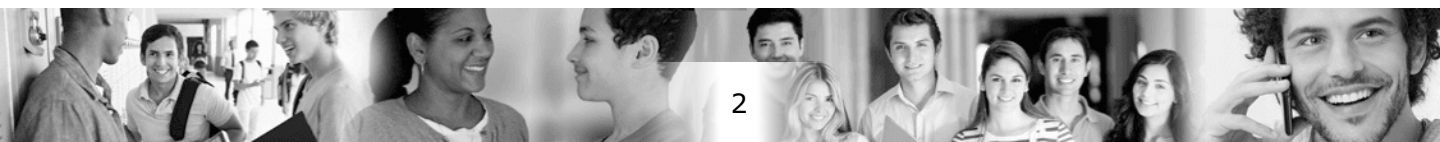

Guide: They buried our tsars here before the capital moved to St Petersburg. The tsars are in the bronze cases in this small chamber!

Sally: Sorry, could you repeat that?

Guide: Bronze cases in the chamber.

Sally: Oh! There are so many of them!

Guide: We have a long history!

Let's Practice!

Sally sees where the tsars are buried!

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

The domes of the churches are all _____ (gold / guild / old). Inside the cathedral, the _____ (walls / wills / waltz) of the _____ (mean / main / maids) room are dark. The tsars are in the _____ (cement / bronze / guild) cases in this small _____ (climber / chamber / roomer).

Let's Practice!

Sally visits Cathedral Square!

*Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: welcome, welcomed, crown, coronation, came, comes, burial, buried, mover, moved.

This is Cathedral Square. It _____ all who came through the main gates. People _____ here for the _____ of a tsar. They _____ our tsars in this cathedral before the capital _____ to St Petersburg.

Learning Points

Asking Somebody to Repeat Something

When you ask someone to repeat something, remember to be polite.

Asking Someone to Repeat - Politely	Asking Someone to Repeat - NOT polite
Sorry, it's the main ... ? I'm sorry, can you repeat the ... ? Could you repeat that? Can you say that again, please?	What? Huh?

Examples:

- Alex: She was a highly intelligent and sophisticated woman!
- Anne: Could you repeat that, please?
