Let's Start!

The towers are all so different!

Learning Outcome

Describe rooms, homes and objects in buildings in common social and work situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places in a city.
- I can describe objects with words.
- I can ask people to talk slowly.

Ask your partner:

- What can you say to a person who is speaking very fast?
- How can you make sure that you can understand him/her?
- What can you do if someone does not understand what you say?

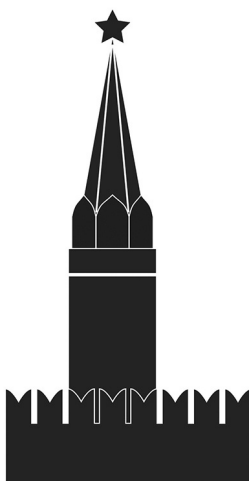

Let's Explore!

Sally is visiting the gilt* onion dome* towers!

* "Gilt", or gilded, means covered in a thin layer of real gold.

 Some of the Russian towers are called "onion domes" because they are round with a tiny peak, like an onion.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: How many towers are in the Kremlin?

Guide: Speak slowly, please, Miss.

Sally: Sorry. How ... many ... towers?

Guide: Twenty. All of the towers are from different periods in history.

Sally: Cool!

Guide: This one is St. Peter's Tower. Napoleon's army blew this one up!

Sally: Ooooh. I have to get a selfie with this one!

Guide: Much slower please, Miss.

Sally: A ... sel ... fie ...

Guide: Hmmm. Well, this is a corner tower. You can go through it to the outside world.

Sally: Uh-huh.

Guide: Over there is the Senate Tower.

Sally: Oh! The clock is immense! Look at the long gilded hands and fancy Roman numbers!

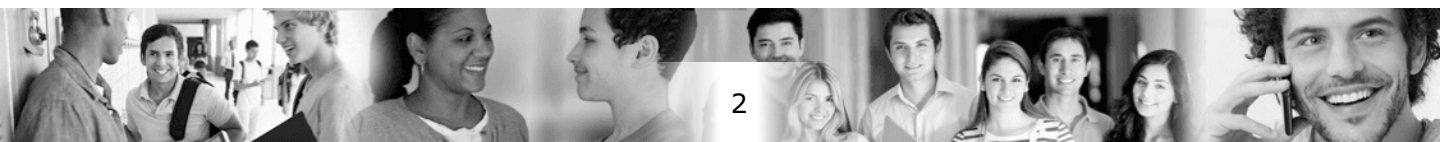

Guide: Again, slowly please, Miss.

Sally: Gold ... hands.

Guide: Yes.

Sally: It looks like a fairytale castle!

Guide: Many people say that, Miss.

Let's Practice!

What things did Sally find out about?

Instructions: Read the passage again. Draw a line from the word on the left to the word on the right to recreate phrases in the passage.

Roman	gilded hands
long	world
corner	army
outside	numerals
fairytale	tower
Napoleon's	castle

Let's Practice!

The new guide has trouble understanding Sally!

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

Speak	please, Miss.
Much slower please,	speaking slower?
Again, slowly	slowly, please, Miss.
Would you mind	Miss.
You speak very	fast. Can you slow down?

Extension Activity

Pack your bags for Moscow!

Target Words

- selfie (noun): a picture you take of yourself
e.g. She took a selfie with the tour guide.
- the outside world (expression): a place you do not visit often e.g. The tsars in the Kremlin rarely saw the outside world.
- hand (noun): the long or short arm on a clock face
e.g. The hands on the clock were gold!
- Roman numerals (noun): the number system used in ancient Rome
e.g. The clock had large Roman numerals on the face.
- fancy (adjective): elaborate; ornate
e.g. The gold clock was too fancy for his home.

Learning Points

The Order of Adjectives

When you use two or more adjectives, the order of the adjectives depends on the category of adjective.

Category	Example
opinion	beautiful
shape	round
age	old
color	gilded
nationality	Russian
material	wooden

Examples:

- It was a beautiful old Russian tower.
- They went into a tall red brick building.

Asking Someone to Speak Slowly

When you ask someone to speak slowly, it is important to be polite.

Asking Someone to Speak Slowly

Speak slowly, please, Miss/Sir.
Much slower please, Miss/Sir.
Again, slower please, Miss/Sir.
Would you mind speaking slower?
You speak very fast/quickly. Could you slow down, please?

Examples:

- Excuse me, Sir. Would you mind speaking slower?
- Please speak slower, Miss.
