Let's Start!

A ghost walks this street!

Learning Outcome

Describe rooms, homes and objects in buildings in common social and work situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you believe some places are haunted?
- Do you know any ghost stories?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk or report about things, actions and events.
- I can talk about rooms and objects in them.
- I can describe objects with words.

Let's Explore!

Sally goes to a haunted house!

* When a place is "haunted" the spirit of a dead person is there.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Guide:

This is where the ghost of a poor old sad man walks. He was a wealthy, greedy man. He hid his coins in the wall behind his heavy ornate iron bed in this house. Every night he slept soundly in his tiny dark bedroom. One night he was invited to the Kremlin. It was a long festive celebration.

When he got home, his door was open. He raced up the long steep wooden stairs to his bedroom. Pieces of the wall covered the floor. His money was gone! He ran back down to the street screaming and died in front of his home.

Now, at night, a thin old man in old-fashioned tattered clothes walks the streets. He cries out, "My money is gone, gone, gone".

Let's Practice!

What was in the house?
