Let's Start!

Napoleon came to the Kremlin?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you know about Napoleon?
- When did he live? Where was he from?
- What did he do?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places in a city.
- I can talk or report about things, actions and events.
- I can ask people to repeat themselves.

Let's Explore!

Sally hears about the French army in Russia under Napoleon.

* When an army is "under" a person, he or she is their leader.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Guide: Hello. I'm your new tour guide today.
Sally: Please speak slowly. I can't understand you.
Guide: I want to tell you about Napoleon and the Kremlin.
Sally: When was Napoleon here?
Guide: In 1812.
Sally: Sorry, when?
Guide: 1812. He decided to go back to France. He ordered his men to blow up the Kremlin!
Sally: Can you repeat that?
Guide: Blow up the Kremlin. All of these buildings are part of the Kremlin!
Sally: Yes, I know.
Guide: Napoleon's soldiers used explosives along the walls and the cathedral for three days!
Sally: Three ... ?
Guide: Days. Fortunately it rained.
Sally: That was lucky.
Guide: The fuses got wet so the damage was less.
Sally: That's so sad.
Guide: Still, many buildings had to be torn down. Now it's beautiful again.
Sally: Yes, it certainly is.
